

Prayer in memory of those who have left us to join the eternal.

Praise be to God, for a beginning, for a goal, Praise be to God, the best of protections, and glory be to God, the One and the Only, and peace and salvation be upon him who has been sent as a mercy to the worlds.

Oh Allah, You who inspired us to testify that there is no god but You, make us bearers of this message and unite us by its secret.

Oh Allah! You who illuminate the paths and liberate us from trials, grant us a way out of any impasse, answer our prayers, and prepare for us Your vessel of salvation, You are the Only One to exist, the Only One to be worshipped, wrap us in Your Mercy.

Oh Allah! We thank You for these beloved ones we have known, sincere and faithful to Your door and committed to invoke You, model of sincerity, love and humility.

Oh Allah grants long life to those among them who continue to assist us with a sincere word, a compassionate look, and a love without return under the light of the path (Tariqa).

Oh Allah! Grant Your Mercy, to those who have left us through the body to dwell in our hearts, they have accomplished their missions with sincerity and courage, maintaining blessed circles animated by songs and prayers that went up to heaven and travelled through space, a reminder of serenity between master and disciple, with eyes full of tears because they had already tasted the deepest part of the message.

Oh Allah! Grant Your Mercy to those souls who gathered old and young people in spaces blessed by masters, to accompany the dawn with prayers and fill the places with light, waking us up in the morning to refer us to our destiny and welcoming us in the evening by rocking us with Hilala, and the praises of the prophet.

Oh Allah! Grant them Your mercy, reward them for their kindness towards us, in their way of assisting us while respecting our childhood fragility, correct and righteous, they were able to unite us in kindness and love-- they who are our family and beloved.

Oh Allah! Cover them with Your Mercy, for their sincere smile which guided our discussions, and their mastered directives which corrected our actions, and this sip of tea perfumed with their love which passed unnoticed.

Oh Allah, Bless those for whom every bead of the rosary bears witness, who in a soothing and serene climate accompanied the voices rising from every house, from every mausoleum, invoking You by Your Name, Allah, reciting the Qur'an and praising the Prophet by invoking his words and ethics.

Oh Allah! Fill us with Your light to taste the Oneness, for a sincere life on the steps of the Path.

Oh Allah! You, Peace, Salam, Unite humanity by Your Name, Salam, Peace, to live in peace and make our circle a platform from which a message of peace for the whole earth and the whole universe emanates.

Oh Allah! Bless our dear masters who have filled us with their kindness, thus illuminating the path towards You, protect and bless Sidi Khaled and may success accompany him in all his projects and works, long life and prosperity inchaallah.

Oh Allah! You the Nearest, who answers prayers, grant us a peaceful life in peace and love.
